1. BACKGROUND

UNDP Moldova "Programme for improving the quality of Moldovan Democracy through Parliamentary and electoral support" is a multi-year institutional development programme that aims to support the institutional consolidation and modernization of both Moldovan Parliament and Moldovan Central Electoral Commission (CEC).

Electoral component of the Programme (Programme) provides continuous assistance to the CEC towards:

- Improving the capacity of the CEC to meet European gender and human rights standards;
- Improving the institutional environment for electoral management bodies to enable them to deliver inclusive and modern electoral processes;
- Improving the electoral and population registration process in Moldova.

One of CEC's key priorities for the period 2012-2015 is "examination of all existing CEC policies, procedures and institutional legal framework, to ensure the equal access of women and men (the principle of gender) to all electoral processes."¹

In 2013 the Programme assisted the CEC to conduct the first gender audit for a public institution in Moldova and prepare a gender mainstreaming action plan. The action plan (AP) identifies a number of activities that CEC and other institutions can do to foster gender equality in the electoral realm. The action plan contains important tools and gender indicators for periodical assessment of the progress made on gender equality. The document was officially adopted in December 2013 and integrated into the CEC strategic plan for 2012 -2015.

The document was officially adopted in December 2013 and integrated into the CEC strategic plan for 2012 -2015. To assist CEC with implementation of the AP, the Programme intends to contract two local consultants, one legal consultant and one expert in data production area, to review and adjust the relevant electoral legal and CEC regulatory framework and design a proper mechanism for regular collection of sex-disaggregated electoral data to be further used by CEC.

These will enable CEC and other stakeholders to evaluate data during future electoral cycles, women's and men's degree of participation in electoral processes, identify and closely monitor the aspects of the electoral process that can and should be improved to enhance their equal participation. Sex disaggregated data might reveal, quantitative and/or quantitative differences between men and women, for example, in voter registration or participation in elections areas.

2. SCOPE OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORK

UNDP is looking for services of a qualified expert in data production area ("Consultant") to support CEC in implementation of CEC gender mainstreaming action, plan through design and implementation of a mechanism for collection of sex disaggregated electoral data. Namely, the consultant will perform the following tasks:

- ✓ Acquaint him/herself with relevant documentation and legal framework
- ✓ Propose a detailed work plan and discuss it with the Programme, CEC and the legal consultant
- ✓ In collaboration with the legal consultant, relevant CEC staff and other stakeholders, assess current electoral data collection procedures applied by the CEC and lower level electoral management bodies including the forms, methods, stakeholders involved, timelines, periodicity, responsible persons (and their capacities), input and output indicators of the collected data
- ✓ In consultation with the UNDP legal consultant and cooperation with CEC gender working group and other stakeholders, using both available statistics and case studies, identify and compile a list of relevant electoral sex-disaggregated data that should be collected by CEC in the framework of the CEC gender mainstreaming action plan
- ✓ Participate in the review, undertaken by the legal consultant, of relevant electoral legislation and CEC regulatory framework (CEC decisions, regulations, instructions, forms, etc.) and assist with identification of the provisions requiring amendments in order to allow for collection and processing of sex-disaggregated electoral data throughout all stages of electoral process (election management, candidates, observers, voters etc.)
- ✓ Participate in meetings with UNDP, CEC and National Bureau of Statistics representatives as required
- ✓ Contribute to amendments to electoral legal and regulatory framework proposed by the legal consultant, with specific input on data collection methodology, applicability and analysis
- ✓ In consultation with the legal consultant, develop drafts of the sex-disaggregated forms to be used for collecting sex disaggregated electoral data, to enable analysis and use by other stakeholders, such as National Bureau of Statistics
- ✓ Deliver to relevant CEC staff and other stakeholders one training on practical aspects of the collection of sex disaggregated data from the mentioned above list
- ✓ Participate to identification by the IT personnel of CEC IT systems which will be affected and will require changes in order to enable collection of sex-disaggregated data through technical means (e.g. which software will require re-programming to enable collection of sex-disaggregated electoral data)
- ✓ Perform other task required for successful finalization of the assignment

For detailed information, please refer to Annex 1 – Terms of Reference.
