1. BACKGROUND

The UN Human Rights Office (Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights – OHCHR) represents the world's commitment to universal ideals of human dignity. It has a unique mandate from the international community to promote and protect all human rights.

The OHCHR field presence in Moldova, led by the National Human Rights Coordinator, assists the UN RC Office, UN Country Team in Moldova (UNCT), Government and civil society in strengthening human rights and human rights based approaches, working closely with the UN Country Team on capacity building and mainstreaming human rights in their work, as well as providing support in engagement with national actors on human rights, including advising national authorities upon request. Thematic priorities for work are: Countering discrimination, in particular racial discrimination, discrimination on the grounds of sex and gender, religion, disability and against others who are marginalized; Combating impunity and strengthening accountability and the rule of law; Strengthening the effectiveness of international human rights mechanisms and the progressive development of international human rights law and standards.

In particular the Office's Work Plan for 2017 includes the following programmatic directions aimed at advancing human rights and equality through communications, outreach and work with media:

- Increasing awareness about human rights and equality among general public and mass media, including in minority regions and communities – Gagauzia, Taraclia district, Northern Moldova, Roma communities;
- 2) Developing capacities of mass media institutions and journalists in covering human rights and equality issues, as well as covering other issues in full compliance with principles of dignity and non-discrimination and with the aim of pro-actively breaking stereotypes and prejudices about Moldova's vulnerable groups;
- 3) Strengthening the work of OHCHR and UN Country Team around the key campaigns with relevance to human rights and equality, including the annual UN Human Rights Awards campaign culminating in the UN Human Rights Awards Gala in December.

2. SCOPE OF WORK, RESPONSIBILITIES AND DESCRIPTION OF THE PROPOSED ANALYTICAL WORK

Under the guidance of the National Human Rights Coordinator the overall objective of the Communications, Outreach and Media Consultant is to support OHCHR and UN Country Team in their communications and outreach, as well as in their work with media, towards substantial advancement of human rights and equality in Moldova.

For detailed information, please refer to Annex 1 – Terms of Reference.

3. REQUIREMENTS FOR EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS

I. Academic Qualifications:

• University degree in journalism, public relations, social sciences, human rights or related areas (advanced degree(s) and/or additional training and certification in communications / media work and/or human rights and non-discrimination is an advantage);

II. Experience and skills:

- At least three (3) years of progressively responsible work in communications, including as public relations specialist, journalist or communications consultant;
- Proven experience in designing and coordinating communications, outreach and/or media programs and campaigns (with relevance to human rights – a great advantage);
- Proven experience of developing and conducting online campaigns and building social media presence is an asset (with relevance to human rights a great advantage);
- Experience in similar assignments with UN and/or other development partners is an advantage;

III. Competences:

- Excellent written communication skills, ability present information logically, clearly and concisely;
- Effective communication skills, ability to think creatively to develop and implement innovative solutions in a challenging environment;

- Proven ability to manage diverse and complex tasks required. Ability to achieve results and meet strict deadlines in an effective manner, maintaining a high quality standard throughout;
- Very good knowledge office software packages, ability of handling web-based and social media platforms;
- Excellent organizational, inter-personal skills;
- Proven commitment to the core values of the United Nations, in particular, respecting differences of culture, gender, religion, ethnicity, nationality, language, age, HIV status, disability, and sexual orientation, or other status.

IV. Language requirements:

 Fluency in both oral and written Romanian and Russian, as well as good knowledge of English is a must. Working knowledge of one or more additional languages relevant for Moldova, including Bulgarian, Gagauzian, Romani, Ukrainian or sign language is an asset.
