

“Supporting National Human Rights Institutions as per International Treaty Bodies and UPR Recommendations” Project
announces an Expression of Interest for GRANTS PROGRAMME (GP-2015: Mass Media for Equality)
for Mass Media, June 2015

The Project «Supporting National Human Rights Institutions as per International Treaty Bodies and UPR Recommendations» is funded by the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and implemented by the United Nations Development Programme in Moldova (UNDP) and the Office of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) in cooperation with the Ombudsperson Office and the Equality Council. The goal of the Project is to contribute to the effective protection and promotion of human rights, equality and non-discrimination on the whole territory of Republic of Moldova, including Transnistrian region with particular attention to women, minorities, marginalized and vulnerable groups. The project seeks to catalyze the emergence of the strongest possible independent national human rights institutions for Moldova – Ombudsperson Office and Equality Council – and to increase their focus around core strategic human rights goals to maximize their impact. The Project also aims at supporting civil society (NGOs and mass media) in mainstreaming equality and human rights, public awareness and submission of complaints to the Equality Council on at least following prohibited grounds: disability, sex, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity (including Roma), language, state of health (people living with HIV, people with AIDS diagnosis, etc.).

In order to meet this goal the «Supporting National Human Rights Institutions as per International Treaty Bodies and UPR Recommendations» Project announces an Expression of Interest opened for mass media or mass media NGOs registered in the Republic of Moldova, including Transnistrian region. The projects approved for funding should be implemented from August 2015 to September 2016 (implementation period should be maximum 14 months).

Project proposals should focus on the mainstreaming and promoting equality and human rights, public awareness, cooperation with the Ombudsperson Office for equality, human rights protection and promotion of submission of complaints to the Equality Council on at least following prohibited grounds: disability, sex, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity (including Roma), language, state of health (people living with HIV, people with AIDS diagnosis, etc.) on the territory of the Republic of Moldova, including Transnistrian region.

Successful proposals should prioritise human rights promotional activities including the design and implementation of campaigns, capacity building for journalists to promote equality and human rights, investigative journalism, encouraging citizen engagement and innovative approaches to improving cooperation and promotion of human rights and equality issues on the basis of international standards and UPR recommendations for the Republic of Moldova, including public awareness and further promotion of submission of complaints to the Equality Council and on the work of Ombudsperson Office.

Applicants should demonstrate how mainstreaming of gender, disability, sexual orientation, minorities (national, ethnic, linguistic, religious etc.) and state of health (people living with HIV, people with AIDS diagnosis, etc.) is ensured throughout the project proposal. This could be done through, but not limited to, active involvement of people with disabilities, both women and men, as well as persons belonging to minorities, into the management/implementation of the proposed project, building capacities of people belonging to the above-listed groups to protect their human rights; ensuring that listed groups will be expected beneficiaries of the project, raising the disability, sexual orientation, state of health, gender and/or minority groups within the issues covered by the project proposal, cooperation with NGOs of persons belonging to minorities and of other mentioned groups for the purposes of project implementation, etc.

The selected organization should also ensure visibility of the donors – Norwegian MFA and UNDP – and of the «Supporting National Human Rights Institutions as per International Treaty Bodies and UPR Recommendations» Project.

Within this Expression of Interest, 6 projects will be selected and grants up to 15.000 USD for one project will be provided. Original and innovative project proposals will have a priority.

The rules and procedures that will guide the submission, ineligible expenses, selection and implementation of projects can be found in the Applicant's Guidelines.*
